COURSE DESCRIPTION

Master's Program in Computer Science Engineering has always been one of the most demanding specialisations in Engineering which provides a large career scope for the students. Through this course, the students are provided knowledge about advanced knowledge in the CSE stream such as Networking, Artificial Intelligence, Data Structures, etc. The course helps students gain theoretical as well as practical knowledge in order to help the students implement their learning in real-world IT setup. Master's Program in Computer Science will be a journey into the astonishing world of computers. Not only you will learn about various software programming but you will also get to learn about the hardware of the systems. Aiming to provide in-depth knowledge of Computer Science, the course will also enlighten you about trending topic like Artificial Intelligence, Data Analytics, Image Processing etc. As soon as you will enter the second year of the course, you will be required to opt a specialisation. Along with this the major subjects taught in this program are Data Bases, Algorithms, Computing, Networks, Computer Architecture, etc

Our Subjects

YEAR 1 (Sem-I)

- Computer Networks
- Advanced Operating System
- Operating Systems
- Microprocessor
- Communication Skills

YEAR 2 (Sem-III)

- Advanced Cloud Computing
- Computer Graphics
- Digital signal Processing
- Data Structures
- Advanced Networking System

YEAR 1 (Sem-II)

- Computer Architecture
- Database Management System
- Algorithms and Data Structure
- Information Security
- Risk And Value Analysis

YEAR 2 (Sem-IV)

- Advanced Computer Programming
- Microprocessor And Computer Architecture
- Computer Fundamentals
- Visual Basics
- PROJECT
