Course Description

The Advanced Diploma in Arts and drawing provides students with skills and knowledge in a range of disciplinary areas in the humanities, arts and social sciences. The Advanced Diploma examines historic, environmental, social, behavioural and cultural features of humanity, allowing students to analyse, reflect upon and anticipate patterns of human conduct. It equips graduates with creative, critical and analytical skills to assist with future employment or to pursue further study. This intensive course enables you to develop, strengthen or even change the subject focus of your first art and design degree (or previous experience) as you develop your portfolio of work. You will also build up knowledge of essential academic research skills and methodologies.

The right & deemed fit students will be provided with 100% placement assistance
