

Course Description

This e-business diploma course teaches you about the various aspects of an e-business and how to implement a successful e-business strategy. E-business skills are incredibly powerful in the modern age, and with this course you will learn how to design, create, amend, and monitor a website to make sure that it reaches the local and international customers searching for your products and services online. Concepts such as IT security help create a secure IT infrastructure at the workplace and engender an advanced understanding of managing IT projects. The course aims to offer expertise to eligible candidates in the fields of e-commerce and the online shopping domain, besides skills in tackling business challenges effectively.
