COURSE DESCRIPTION

An undergraduate taxation course is called B.Com Taxation. The B.Com. taxes course provides a solid foundation in the areas of taxes, accounting, and finance while preparing students for technical study in these areas. An introduction of microeconomic theory and financial structure is given in this course, with a special emphasis on tax evaluation. According to a lot of recent polls, more students are choosing to major in taxes for their B.Com., which helps them to have successful careers. The course is to gradually and effectively impart comprehensive understanding of the financial concepts and taxation system to graduate-level students. It spreads a thorough synopsis of every facet associated with the topic.
