COURSE DESCRIPTION

Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W) is a degree that offers knowledge and skills to aspirants to prepare them for a professional career in social welfare. BSW enables students to apply their knowledge and consciously applying these practices in the real world to help masses suffering from poverty, violence, mental illness, homelessness, and diseases like AIDS and cancer. BSW is a course particularly beneficial to people employed at middle and lower levels with NGOs and social and developmental agencies in both government and private sector. It is useful to candidates who may like to work in social welfare sectors as it helps them acquire professional skills and knowledge to help the clients to deal with their emotional and psychological problems.
