COURSE DESCRIPTION

With the increase and advance in technology which led to the broadening of communication networks such as social media, television, newspapers, e-magazines, and radio, the scope and reaches of journalism have also risen. This has caused journalism to also gain a huge, global audience for even the smallest of events. There is coverage of all events worldwide. Broadcasting of news reporting isn't limited to local, regional or national ranges anymore. When people think of Journalism, they merely picture news reporters and newspaper articles. But that isn't what journalism is limited to. It extends way beyond those realms and brings various opportunities and various paths to follow, in terms of jobs.
